Mysteel Introduction

Mysteel-Shanghai Ganglian E-commerce Holdings Co., Ltd (SZSE:300226) is the leading commodity data service provider in China. Starting from steel and raw materials, Mysteel has expanded its capacity to all bulk commodities including non-ferrous metals, energy & chemicals, agricultural, and construction materials. Equipped with an over-3,000 staffed team gathering data across China every day from over 90,000 data collection points. Mysteel is the first Chinese price reporting agency (PRA) to achieve IOSCO assurance. Over 80% of steel trading contracts in China refer to Mysteel prices/indices for contract settlements.

Mysteel Ferroalloys Business Unit

Mysteel starts the ferroalloys business since 2004, providing market intelligence service on bulk and noble alloys. We have the best data coverage of prices, minerals and ferroalloy inventories at the ports and the smelters, ferroalloy plants' capacity utilization and operational rates, as well as consumption by the steel producers and other end-users.

Our Services include:

- Electronic/web-based industrial and market data service
- Commodity pricing indices and benchmark service
- Upstream and downstream industry research
- Commodity conference and training service
